

(TOO MANY) SIGHTS TO SEE

TRAVELIFE recommends five fantastic tours to help you uncover the City of Lights

1 ULTIMATE PARIS GUIDE

Paris holidays can be personal and exciting with the ultimate travel planner catering to your every whim and travel need. Gain an insider's footing by purchasing one of their five "Ultimate Key" subscriptions that provides access to the unlimited services that come with their Ultimate Paris Guide. Benefits include reservations for exclusive events, prestigious shows, and Michelin-star restaurants, hotel and airport transfers, corporate events planning, and even wedding proposal logistics. www.ultimateparisguide.com

2 FRENCH LINKS TOURS

Parisians certainly lead the way in traditional arts like painting and sculpting, as well as in cooking and fashion – so seeing true masters at work is a memorable experience. French Links Tours, a tour group specializing in lavish customized trips all over France, offers to take visitors to the private workrooms of some of Paris' well-loved brands such as Louis Vuitton, Chanel, and Hermes. They'll also customize daytrips and visits to up-and-coming dress and accessory designers, and to some of the best artisanal producers of cheese, chocolate, coffee, and more. Explore the best of Paris in a Rolls-Royce or sail in a private yacht to avoid the hordes of tourists..

3 SIGHT SEEKER'S DELIGHT UNIQUE WALKING TOURS

There's no better way to see the best of Paris than via a walking tour with a talented storyteller for a guide to take you past all the famous landmarks. Sight Seeker tours are brimming with insightful commentaries and interesting news, and they offer many unique itineraries including walks along the Seine, a tour of the Jewish neighborhoods of the Marais, and a Paris cemetery tour, among others. www.sightseekersdelight.com

4 CITY FREE TOUR

Let Tamara, Boris, and Chris guide you around the wonderful city of Paris for free. Yes, you read right: for free. Each of them is responsible for a specific area, and they'll happily guide you through all the top tourist areas and regale you with witty and informative stories about each famous neighborhood for an unforgettable impression of Paris. Yes, some of the best things in life are, indeed, free. www.cityfreetour.com
